

12th GLOBAL TIRE TECH FORUM

June 17-20, 2025

Yantai Shandong, China

Dear Sir or Madam,

Warm greetings from China Rubber Industry Association (CRIA). We are delighted to announce that the 12th Global Tire Tech Forum (GTTF 2025) will be held from June 17 to 20, 2025 in Yantai, Shandong, China.

With the theme of 'Eco-friendly and Innovative Future', this forum endeavors to pool the collective wisdom and strength of the global tire industry. It aims to jointly delve into the cutting - edge trends and chart innovative paths for the development of the industry.

Over the past eleven editions of the forum, nearly 350 speakers from 18 countries and regions have shared their profound insights through remarkable presentations. These have successfully drawn the widespread attention of enterprises in the tire upstream and downstream sectors, universities, government agencies, and industry associations. Moreover, the forum has enjoyed robust cooperation and support from the associations of major tire - producing entities, such as ETRMA, USTMA, JATMA, KOTMA and ATMA and has established a significant influence within the global tire community.

It's expected that over 500 professionals from nearly 10 countries and regions will attend the forum, who respectively come from upstream and downstream tire-related enterprises. There will be one main forum, four parallel sessions, one showcase and concurrent activities.
